

NOTE ON CSR RULES IN INDIA

India's new Companies Act 2013 (Companies Act) has introduced the provision for Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR). The concept of CSR rests on the ideology of give and take. Companies take resources in the form of raw materials, human resources etc from the society. By performing the task of CSR activities, the companies are giving something back to the society.

Ministry of Corporate Affairs has notified Section 135 and Schedule VII of the Companies Act as well as the provisions of the Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy Rules, 2014 (CRS Rules)) which has come into effect from 1 April 2014 and certain amendment in May 2016.

Applicability:

Section 135 of the Companies Act 2013 provides the threshold limit for applicability of the CSR to a Company:

- (a) net worth of the company to be Rs 500 crore or more; or
- (b) turnover of the company to be Rs 1000 crore or more; or
- (c) net profit of the company to be Rs 5 crore or more.

Further as per the CSR Rules, the provisions of CSR are not only applicable to Indian companies, but also applicable to branch and project offices of a foreign company in India.

Expenditure on CSR does not form part of business expenditure.

CSR Committee and Policy:

Every qualifying company requires spending of at least 2% of its average net profit (Profit before taxes) for the immediately preceding 3 financial years on CSR activities in India.

Further, the qualifying company will be required to constitute a committee (CSR Committee) of the Board of Directors (Board) consisting of 3 or more directors. The CSR Committee shall formulate and recommend to the Board, a policy which shall indicate the activities to be undertaken (CSR Policy); recommend the amount of expenditure to be incurred on the activities referred and monitor the CSR Policy of the company.

The Board shall take into account the recommendations made by the CSR Committee and approve the CSR Policy of the company.

Definition of the term CSR:

The term CSR has been defined under the CSR Rules which includes but is not limited to:

- Projects or programs relating to activities specified in the Schedule; or

- Projects or programs relating to activities undertaken by the Board in pursuance of recommendations of the CSR Committee as per the declared CSR policy subject to the condition that such policy covers subjects enumerated in the Schedule.

Flexibility is also permitted to the companies by allowing them to choose their preferred CSR engagements that are in conformity with the CSR policy.

The Board of a company may decide to undertake its CSR activities approved by the CSR Committee, through a registered society or trust or section 8 company with established track record of three years.

Activities under CSR:

The activities (in areas or subject, specified in Schedule VII) that can be done by the company to achieve its CSR obligations include:

Schedule VII of Companies Act 2013

(General circular no. 21/2014)*

Government Scheme:

CSR should not be interpreted as a source of financing the resource gaps in the Government schemes. Use of corporate innovations and managerial skills in the delivery of “public goods” is at the core of CSR implementation by the companies. CSR funds of companies should not be used as a source of funding Government projects.

The Government has no role to play in the approving and implementing of CSR projects. MCA will provide the broad contours within which eligible companies will formulate their CSR policies, including activities to be undertaken and implement the same in right earnest.

Local Area:

For the purpose of spending the amount earmarked for Corporate Social Responsibility activities, the company shall not limit itself to local area or areas around it where it operates but shall select areas across the country. (amendment bill 2016)

Company may also choose to associate with 2 or more companies for fulfilling the CSR activities provided that they are able to report individually.

The CSR Committee shall also prepare the CSR Policy in which it includes the projects and programmes which is to be undertaken, prepare a list of projects and programmes which a company plans to undertake during the implementation year and also focus on integrating business models with social and environmental priorities and process in order to create share value.

The company can also make the annual report of CSR activities in which they mention the average net profit for the 3 financial years and also prescribed CSR expenditure but if the company is unable to spend the minimum required expenditure the company has to give the reasons in the Board Report for non compliance so that there are no penal provisions are attracted by it.
